

Curriculum Vitae

Kate Kaitcer
Graduate Student
Department of History
Texas Christian University
Fort Worth, TX 76129

e-mail: k.g.kaitcer@tcu.edu
Tel. (682) 551-3619

Education:

Ph.D. Student Texas Christian University, 2020-Present
Graduate Certificate in Comparative Race and Ethnic Studies
Graduate Student Pedagogy Certification

M.A. Texas Christian University, 2020
Graduate Certificate in Women and Gender Studies

B.A. University of Texas at Austin, 2015

Dissertation Project:

“Women Traveling during the American Revolution”

This research examines the experiences of women who traveled through America’s War for Independence. This analysis recounts the struggles and new experiences that these women faced. By following their travels, the dissertation will look at how war disrupted different locations. The dissertation will also focus on how gender, economic, and race relations affected the women’s travels.

Professional Experience:

2018- Teaching Assistant, Texas Christian University
HIST 30970- Tropical Studies in History: Secrets of Nature in the Iberian World
HIST 30673- History of Museums and Collecting
HIST 30203- The Renaissance
HIST 10213- The World Expanded: Europe 1348-1789
HIST 20213- The World Expanded: Europe 1348-1789
HIST 40603- Colonial America
HIST 10533- Freshman Seminar: Fort Worth and the West
HIST 40853- American Environmental History

Conferences:

2023 “Dynamic Opportunities: British Slave Resistance in Florida,” Britain and the World Conference, April 2023

Curriculum Vitae

- 2023 “Four Loyalists in Motion: Women’s Perspectives on War and Travel,” Consortium on the Revolutionary Era, 1750-1850 Conference, Fort Worth, Texas, February 2023
- 2022 “Comforts of Travel: Black and White Women’s Experience during the American Revolution,” Society for Historians of the Early American Republic Conference, New Orleans, Louisiana, July 2022
- 2022 “Sailor in Petticoats:” Loyalist Louisa Wells' Journey through the Rough Seas of the American Revolution,” Society for Military History Conference, Fort Worth, Texas, April 2022
- 2022 “Perfect Timing: Slaves and Tools of Resistance,” Texas Center for Working-Class Studies Conference, Plano, Texas, February 2022

Public Presentations:

- 2022 “Sailor in Petticoats:” Loyalist Louisa Wells' Journey through the Rough Seas of the American Revolution,” Invited talk for the Sons of the American Revolution Major K.M. Van Zandt Chapter #6, Fort Worth, October 15, 2022

Book Reviews:

- 2023 A. K. Fielding. Rough Diamond: The Life of Colonel William Stephen Hamilton, Alexander Hamilton's Forgotten Son. Bloomington: Indiana University Press, 2021. Published by H-War.net, June 2023.

Service:

- 2023-2025 Organization of American Historians Graduate Student Committee Member
- 2022 Graduate Representative for TCU African/Global South Job Search
- 2022 Volunteer, Society of Military History Conference, Fort Worth, Texas
- 2019 Speaker, Graduate Orientation, Texas Christian University

Catalogue Entry:

- 2019 Contributor to “Books and Power After the Fall of the Aztec Empire” booklet for exhibit curated by Dr. Alex Hidalgo and Dr. Julie Christenson, Special Collections, Mary Coats Burnett Library, Texas Christian University

Professional Organizations:

American Historical Association

Curriculum Vitae

Britain and the World

Organization of American Historians

Society for Historians of the Early American Republic

Southern Association for Women Historians

Southern Historical Association