

Michael K. Fung

m.fung@tcu.edu

Education

M.A. History, University of Texas at Arlington, 2020

B.A. History (with a minor Secondary Education), Stephen F. Austin State University, 2018

Research Interests

Native American History

Urban History

Global Conflict (World War I & World War II)

Course Work(M.A.)

Reading Colloquium: Trans-Atlantic Migration, Eastern Europe, Approaches to World History, Native American History, Plants-Animals-Germs, World War II, Sub-Saharan Africa. Research

Seminar: Urban History, History of Cartography, American Revolutionary Era.

Other: Theory and Methods, Spain-Portugal.

Research & Writing

“The View of a Soldier,” for World War II Colloquium, instructed by Dr. James Sandy, (Summer 2020).

“Motivating Migrants,” for Spain-Portugal course, instructed by Dr. Kimberly Breuer, (Summer 2020).

“The View From Above,” for History of Cartography Seminar, instructed by Dr. ImreDemhardt, (Spring 2020).

“Of Animal’s Inclusion,” for Plants-Animals-Germs Colloquium, instructed by Dr. Christopher Morris, (Spring 2020).

“Why Approach World History?,” for Approaches to World History Colloquium, instructed by Dr. John Garrigus, (Spring 2019)

“A Window into Native Relocation,” for Urban History Seminar, instructed by Dr. Robert Fairbank, (Fall 2019).

“A Historiography of the Native Way of War,” for Native American History Colloquium, instructed by Dr. Paul Conrad, (Fall 2019).

“Synergy of the Illegal and Criminal Under the Chinese Exclusion Act,” for Trans-Atlantic Migration Colloquium, instructed by Dr. Kenyon Zimmer, (Fall 2018).

“Hoplite: The Greek Warrior,” The Douglas-Britt Carvey Classics Award, (Fall 2018)

Certifications & Teaching Experience

Texas Examinations of Educator Standards (TExES)

TExES Pedagogy and Profession Responsibilities May 2018

TExES History 7- 12 November 2017

7th Grade Texas History

International Leadership Texas, 2018-2019

Grand Prairie ISD, 2019-Present

8th Grade US History

Grand Prairie ISD, 2019-Present